Welcome to BAIOSPHERE MEDICAL 2026

Erlangen • 8–9 June 2026

- Clinicians, physicists, computer scientists, engineers.
- One question: how do we make medical AI useful and trustworthy?
- Two days, two venues, one community.
- From prototype, towards the clinic.
- Welcome to Erlangen!

From an Idea at ECR

Three months from conversation to symposium

- Conceived at ECR Vienna, March 2026.
- About three months to the event.
- Conceived, announced, peer-reviewed, assembled.
- Still: more than 100 submissions.
- The community was ready.

The Programme

By the numbers

- 106 submissions received.
- 93 contributions accepted.
- 74 Main / 19 Highlight.
- 34 reviewers, 218 assignments.
- ~350 authors.

93 / 106

accepted submissions

3 continents

Asia, Europe, North America

The Programme

Topics in this volume

- Medical imaging.
- General medical AI.
- Benchmarking and domain generalization.
- Multimodal fusion.
- Oncology, neuroradiology, and beyond.

- Alejandro F. Frangi – Digital twins for in-silico trials.
- Mengyun Qiao – Generative and agentic cardiac modelling.
- Nils D. Forkert – Biases in medical-imaging machine learning, and their sociotechnical impact.
- Lyu Su – A real-world platform for AI-assisted diagnosis of neuropsychiatric disease.

Best Scientific Contribution Award

Candidates span the meeting's range

- Fetal cardiac imaging.
- Surgical registration.
- Medical neural fields.
- Biomedical model evaluation.

Day 1 • Welcome Reception

8 June 2026 • Medical Valley Center

- 15:00 – 17:00 Arrival & registration.
- 17:00 – 18:15 Opening remarks.

Conference Dinner

Entla's Keller • Erlangen

- After Day 2, we walk to the cellars.
- Dinner at Entla's Keller, Erlangen.
- Tour of the historic beer cellars.
- Time to keep talking science.
- The hallway conversations, continued.

- Three months from idea to event – also for the Book of Abstracts.
- An AI coding agent reformatted every submission (PDF or Word) into a uniform $\text{\LaTeX}$ layout.
- Automated checks: word and reference limits, required sections, ethics-statement heuristic, track-specific rules.
- Flagged items returned to authors for resolution.
- Editors remain responsible for the final content.

Sponsors & Thanks

We could not do this without them

- Siemens Healthineers – conference dinner and international travel grants.
- Medical Valley EMN e.V. – welcome reception on Day 1.
- German Society for AI in Medicine (KImed) – Best Scientific Contribution Award.
- Program committee and reviewers.
- Organising team: Maryam Mirzaei, Greta Giese, Sven Grünke.
- FAU University Press – Open Access proceedings.

Welcome to BAIOSPHERE MEDICAL 2026!

Enjoy the science, the conversations, and Erlangen.
